REPORT

The Department of English has been ceaselessly endeavouring to provide the students every possible opportunity to broaden the learning spectrum of the students. Literary Fest was one such endeavour. The activity "All the World's a stage" was held on 12.3.22. There was an enthusiastic response by the students of literature. The main topics covered were - (i) An Introduction to Drama (ii) Forms of Drama (iii) Elizabethan Drama (iv) Shakespeare as a Dramatist (v) A brief introduction to Macbeth (vi) screening of Macbeth Group Discussion was held which was followed by the analysis of the play. The students actively participated. Faculty members shared insights on nuances of drama and dramatic devices.
